THE EASTER BUNNY BRIGADE

This week we are going to say congratulations to two Kiwanis members who are constantly going above and beyond. Last Saturday Amanda Haun and Luke Holbrook spent most of the day by helping out with various Easter Projects. At the City Wide Egg Hunt Luke spent the first part of the day helping the Kiwanis Easter Bunny hand out free treat bags to the children, and after the egg hunt Luke gave out cookies and punch to children who had found one of the 500 lucky Aramark Eggs, but the fun did not stop there. At 3:30 Luke and Amanda also worked to put on our second annual special needs Easter Egg Hunt. The group started by covering Heritage Park's Baseball field with over 500 candy filled eggs. At 4:00p.m. The children were let loose; most picking up more eggs than their baskets could carry. As the children sat and checked out the contents they were treated to another surprise visit by the Kiwanis Bunny who with the help of Amanda Haun gave each child a small stuffed bunny to take home. Although by the looks of the picture the Kiwanis members had just as much fun as the kids did. Pictured here Luke Holbrook, The Kiwanis Easter Bunny and Amanda Haun
