GETTING TO KNOW: LUKE HOLBROOK

Since next week is National Food Service Week, we are going to shine our spotlight on our very own Food Service Professional. Luke Holbrook is currently the Director of Food Services for Tennessee Wesleyan College. Originally from Wilmington Delaware, he graduated from Western Kentucky where he earned his degrees in History and Social Studies. When he is not active in Kiwanis he enjoys traveling, reading, cooking, and spending time with his better half Mary Kirk, and their dachshund Jefferson. Luke has been active in the Pancake Breakfast, Pumpkin town, Christmas on the Square, and the City Wide Easter Egg Hunt.

FINE DINING AT ITS BEST

What better way to kick off the weekend than to treat yourself to a great meal. For the rest of the semester TWC Dining Hall will be having a special meal on Friday Nights, but this is not just any meal. The Dining Hall is going to be offering all you care to eat Steak and Shrimp Buffet. But this is not just your cheap steaks that some restaurants offer, oh no, the juicy strip steaks will be available every Friday from 5:30p.m. To 7:00 p.m. and to top it off how about an order of shrimp and a nice baked potato to compliment your meal. But don't worry, if steak is not your cup of tea you can still indulge yourself in the all you can eat salad bar, grill, and deli bar. As you enjoy your meal, don't forget to leave room for some of TWC's own signature desserts, which are baked fresh daily. So what could make this meal even better, how about the fact that for all you care to eat steak, shrimp, grill, salad bar, desserts, and drink it is only $7.09. So this is a meal that will leave you full without leaving your wallet empty.
