KIWANIS CLUB OF ATHENS TENNESSEE

January 27th 2012

Vol 2012-04

CONGRATULATIONS

If you looked in the paper this week then you might have seen some of our members gracing the pages. Hats off to Chris Adams, Travis Giles and Joe Riley.

Chris and Travis recently finished their term as YMCA Board members and Joe recently finished his term as Board President. It is no wonder that with hard working community members like this our club is the success it is today. So be sure to pick up your copy of the Daily Post Athenian and see who in our club is going above and beyond.

GETTING TO KNOW: STEPHANIE LINKOUS

Stephanie Linkous is currently the Director of the McMinn and Meigs United was. Stephanie currently serves as our clubs treasurer. Originally from Dayton, she attended MTSU where she earned her degree is Advertising and Public Relations. When she is not active in Kiwanis is enjoys running, reading, watching youth sports, and spending time with her husband Darrell and her two sons Dillon and Drew. Stephanie also enjoys spending time with her miniature dachshund named Scout. Stephanie has been active in the Pancake Breakfast, Golf Tournament, BBQ and the Reality Check at the Athens Junior High.

UNITED WAY OF MCMINN AND MEIGS COUNTY

Our local United Way began in 1957 and since then is goal has been to allocate funds to 18 Partner Agencies in McMinn and Meigs Counties

Mission: To provide the opportunity for a good quality of life for everyone in McMinn & Meigs Counties through education, financial stability and good health. They Encourage volunteerism with number opportunities throughout the year. Day of Caring is our largest event with over 250 people volunteering for a day in our Partner Agencies completing tasks that would normally not be possible.

Since 2006, $3.9 million has been raised by United Way of McMinn & Meigs and put back into our local community.
