CONGRATULATIONS

Well it's that time of the week. Time to say Congratulations to those members who make our club the success it is. This week we are going to go back to our last meeting on December 16th and say thanks to those who stood out. First off, thanks to everyone who came out for the last meeting of the year. Thanks to Luke Holbrook for calling out the numbers and Amanda Haun for helping give out cards and prizes. Now to say thanks to a couple of members who showed us the true meaning of the holidays. At the meeting Kaye Burton hit bingo numerous times, but never once called it out because she wanted to let others win the prizes, but at the end of the game Jack Hammontree walked up and gave Kaye one of his gifts that he had won. To me these four members stood out because of the generosity that they showed, whether it was giving others a chance to win, sharing a gift, or giving up their time to help out.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

This week we are going to shine our spotlight on a member who has spent 45 years as a member of the Athens Kiwanis Club. In 1966 George Newton became a member of the Athens Kiwanis club. By 1971 he was serving as the club's president. This year George was recognized with the Legion of Honor for his 45 years in the club. George is currently the 4th ranking member in years with the Club. George is currently classified as a senior member, and although George does not attend many meetings any more due to health issues, he is still one of our best members.

THINGS TO DO IN ATHENS TENNESSEE

Relive more than a century of the rich, turbulent history of Southeast Tennessee at the McMinn County Living Heritage Museum in Athens, Tennessee. Thirty permanent exhibit areas depict life from the Cherokee Indians and early pioneer settlers through 1940 as well as several changing exhibits and programs throughout the year. Exhibits that captivate, programs that educate, and events that entertain all await you. So visit the museum today!
