KIWANIS CLUB OF ATHENS TENNESSEE

March 16th 2012

Vol 2012-09

UPCOMING EVENTS

As March rolls in so does our opportunity to do some projects. On March 31st our club will once again be taking part in the City of Athens Parks and Recreation City Wide Easter Egg Hunt. Our club will once again be giving out our annual giant gift basket to the lucky child who finds the Kiwanis egg, however this year our club will also be donating 500 eggs filled with candy to the park to hide. We also want to say congratulations to TWC Dining and Luck Holbrook for donating 500 Cookies and Punch for the children to enjoy after the Easter Egg Hunt.

GETTING TO KNOW: Amanda Haun

This week we are going to shine our spotlight on our very own Amanda Haun. Amanda is currently the Social Councilor 2 at McMinn County Health Dept. Originally from Athens, Amanda graduated from Austin Peay where she earned her degree in History and Sociology. When she is not active in Kiwanis she enjoys Backpacking, Crafting, Theater and spending time with her husband Travis, and their 3 sons, Nathan age 10, Aiden age 4 and Spencer age 9 Months.

GOOD FAITH CLINIC

Good Faith Clinic is a free clinic created by Doctors David and Jenny Byrd to minister to the health needs of the Athens/ McMinn County area that do not have any health insurance or TennCare. The clinic is completely staffed by volunteers from Athens Regional Medical Center and at large from the Athens area. Staff includes nurses, administrators, pharmacy personnel, and various helpers during the hours the clinic is service. The clinic is currently open two Thursday evenings each month. It begins operation at 6:00 treating patients with non-invasive diagnosis . . . and providing medicines for most circumstances. The clinic is open to everyone in the Athens area.
